FORMAT: Full Length Studio Album
GENRE: Roots Rock Inflected Folk/Pop

“In the current climate of “sounds like” artists and “heard it before” lyrics Trina Hamlin offers an intelligent and refreshing musical experience”.

The first driving kick drum beats of the title track Loving On Love, the palpable richness, warmth and feelings of yearning in the vocals of You Can't Remember, the sensuous bass and harmonica driven groove of Jacaranda and the roots rock gem of a cover of You're No Good make this latest studio release from Trina Hamlin, quite simply, captivating from the very first note.
